CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—With the count progressing slowly in the Illinois primary election held today, returns at midnight showed the ticket backed by Governor Frank O. Lowden leading in the Republican ballot by substantial majorities in the counties outside Chicago, but with this advantage more than nullified by city returns available at that hour.

On combined totals the candidates headed by Frank L. Smith, of Dwight for United States senator and Len Small of Kan-kakee, for governor and backed by Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago, held pluralities of 17,000 or more.

On the Democratic ballots J. Hamilton Lewis, former United States senator was leading Bar-ratt O'Hara, ex-lieutenant governor, by a ratio of approximately 6 to 1 in both Chicago and down state returns.

The race for the Democratic nomination for United States senator was close between Robert E. Burke of Chicago and Peter A. Waller of Kewanee that there was no indication of the outcome.

With 958 precincts tabulated, including 119 from points outside Cook county, Burke had 18,901 and Waller, 18,151. At the same hour 947 precincts out of 5,737 in the state gave Lewis 32,217 and O'Hara 5,866.

On the Republican side Smith was leading McKinley in 779 Chicago precincts by 29,889 votes an average of 38 1/2 to the precinct. This ratio had been maintained since the first returns came in early in the evening and if not upset figured to give a plurality of 85,085 in Chicago.

The downstate complications totalled McKinley 37,378; Smith 25,019 for 612 precincts, an average in favor of McKinley of about 20 votes to the precinct. This showed a gain of six votes house of representatives, by 4,600 votes when 857 precincts had been reported. The totals were: Horne, 17,361; Igou, 21,907.

Later returns 1,775 precincts out of 5,737 in the state including 790 in counties outside Cook county gave Smith 101,792 votes for senator and McKinley 92,690 while 1,018, including 153 outside Cook county gave Robert Burke 20,113 and Peter A. #### WOMAN PLACED IN INSANE IN ORDER TO GET PROPERTY

French Woman of Noble Birth in Kansas Hospital

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 15.—A story involving a French woman said to be of noble birth wrongfully committed to the Kansas state asylum for the insane in order that others might obtain control of a New Mexico mining property reached Governor Allen today.

The story was told in a letter from Arthur E. Stevens, an attorney in the treasury department at Washington and has to do with Mrs. Ruby E. DeMay, a French woman who has been a patient in the state hospital the last thirty years, Governor Allen ordered an investigation.

According to the letter Mrs. DeMay, who owned mining property at Deming, N. M., was held a prisoner by a quarter breed Indian on a farm near Winfield, Kan., her three year old daughter was taken from her and the child was brought up in ignorance of the mother's existence. Mrs. DeMay, represented by her captors to be insane, was finally committed to the state asylum, the letter says.

TO PREVENT MONOPOLY OF CABLES LINES

Must Reach Equitable Solution of South American Situation.

Washington, Sept. 15.—American commissioners to the international communications conference to be held in Washington next month held their first meeting today at the state department. They began a study of the entire cable situation with a view to preventing a threatened monopoly of cables by other nations.

Officials said today that the monopoly exercised by the British on the West Coast of South Africa made it imperative that the American representatives to the communications conference devise measures not only to reach an equitable solution of that question, but also of similar adverse conditions confronting the United States elsewhere.

URGES ADOPTION OF NEW PROPOSAL TO PREVENT WAR

Sen. Harding Sends Message to Republican Women

CANDIDATE CONFERES WITH HILLIS

MARION, O., Sept. 15.—Urging adoption of a new proposal for prevention of war instead of the league of nations, Senator Harding in a message today to Republican women's organizations and women's Harding and Coolidge clubs asked that we "preserve our own national conscience at home and not check it at Geneva."

The message which was addressed to Mrs. Ray F. Zucker, president of the women's Harding and Coolidge club of New York city, and sent to all women's organizations, also asserted that "American women must realize that the league of nations as presented by a Democratic administration would not mean peace, but would make boys live in tents across the seas."

Set Forth Candidate's Views
The message was intended to set forth to the women voters the candidate's views on their entrance into politics why they should enroll in the Republican party and a brief outline of the party's position on the league of nations.

Senator Harding said he expects in the near future to make a comprehensive discussion of the league of nations from the women's viewpoint in a front porch speech. He intimated this may be one of his most important front porch addresses. It will be made to a delegation of women voters.

Confers With Hillis
Before leaving for Columbus to play golf this afternoon, Senator Harding conferred with Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Brooklyn tabernacle. Dr. Hillis later gave out a statement in which he said that "possibly one reason why the tide is ebbing away from the party in power, and 'is running so strongly toward Senator Harding' is the serious note in the senator's thinking; his atmosphere of self-restraint; the severity of his conclusions of his reserves; his generous judgments of those who differ with him; the total absence of any bitterness in any word of any speech; his spirit of kindness; his good will, his big broad Americanism, his constant use of the words 'back to the constitution'; the way in which he restrains his friends with the words 'remember that this is a government of law and not of men'; the earnest attitude in which he uttered these words."

"My primary purpose in these speeches in the building of American manhood and the strengthening of American institutions; my secondary is to be. But I would a thousand times rather lose the presidency and be conscious that I have done something for American manhood and America than the presidency thru any word or deed that might weaken faith at home or abroad in our free institutions, or injure the quality of American manhood—all have been convinced that at least there is a man that is equal to and in a sense bigger than any office whatever."

COMMITTEE WILL WORK OUT GRAIN MARKETING PLAN

Will Take Two Years to Get the Plan in Action

PROMINENT MEN ON COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The American Farm Bureau Federation announced today the personnel of the committee of seventeen appointed by President J. W. Howard to work out a plan for co-operative marketing of the American grain crop.

Methods of co-operating grain elevator associations in the mid-west and of the grain raisers of Western Canada will be studied as well as the systems used in similar marketing enterprises by fruit growers and other producers, the federation said, estimating that it would require two years of preparation before a co-operative plan for the grain crop could be put in action.

The committee includes George Livingstone, chief of the United States Bureau of Markets; Dr. H. J. Waters, Kansas City; C. H. Gustafson, president Nebraska Farmers' Union; William G. Eckhardt, Illinois State Farm Bureau; P. E. Powell, Missouri Farmers' Grain Dealers' association; C. A. Bingham, Michigan state farm bureau; John C. ### SERIOUS COAL FAMINE FACES SEVERAL STATES

Must Modify Priority Rulings to the Northwest

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 15.—Representatives of practically all branches of the coal industry in Ohio, Michigan and Indiana agreed here today that there will be a serious coal famine in the middle west unless priority rulings of the interstate commerce commission on coal shipments to the northwest and New England districts are modified immediately. Decision as to whether the interstate commerce commission will be appealed to, was left to the utilities commissions whose representatives participated in the meeting. Relief that probably will be asked for will be the loading of a specified number of cars at the mines each day for midwest consumption.

It was stated that at present Indiana consumers have less than twenty-two percent less than their winter requirements, Ohio consumers 16.5 per cent and Michigan consumers less than thirty percent.

The interstate commerce commission will do its level best to correct any injustice in my opinion," asserted A. G. Gutheim, Washington, representing the American Railway association commission on cars. C. T. Ross, secretary of the Michigan coal commission represented that state.

VACATION STRIKE IS NOT SETTLED

Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 15.—Failing to receive assurance from Secretary of Labor Wilson or the mine operators that there would be no discrimination against monthly men who quit work in sympathy with the miners the policy committee of the anthracite mine workers adjourned its third day's session here tonight without taking any action toward ending the hard coal workers' "vacation" strike.

DRYS WANT SPIRIT AS WELL AS LETTER OF LAW ENFORCED

Federal Judges Must Sacredly Perform Their Duties

CRITICIZE INTERNAL REVENUE BUREAU

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—A program designed to rid the government of officials who do not observe or enforce the "spirit as well as the letter" of the Volstead act was put under way at the first session of a national conference of Anti-Saloon League officials.

The first step toward carrying out the proposed program, the conference appointed a committee to draft a resolution, which, league officials said, would serve notice on federal judges that their "sacred duties must be sacredly performed."

The committee was instructed to report tomorrow. Impeachment proceedings were suggested as a means to compel lax judges to employ in a proper manner the penal provisions of the prohibition enforcement act in dealing with persons convicted of violating the law.

Wants Congress Kept Dry.
The conference in its discussions evinced a determination that the next congress be made "dry" and "kept dry." Speakers expressed the fear that "the power of the wets is not entirely downed" and unless a majority in maintained in congress favorable to rigid enforcement, the prohibition code may be changed.

Administrative officers, it was indicated, also will be brought within the league's program, several speakers asserting that in a great many instances administrative officers were not functioning to the satisfaction of the "drys." The proposal was made that the league "build fire under those who betray the trust of their appointment."

Fear Liquor Interests.
The opinion was expressed that liquor interests might seek to defeat the aim of the law by obtaining the appointment of officials who would "wink at some kinds of violations."

The discussion of the league officials brought half a dozen vigorous attacks on officials of varying grades who have to do with enforcement of the Volstead act. The internal revenue bureau was criticised for issuing "scads of wholesalers' permits" and federal judges were accused of "codding" moonshiners and bootleggers. Many judges were pictured as too lenient and having permitted violators to escape punishment with fines of a few hundred dollars.

OTHER CANDIDATES STAGE SPECTACULAR CONTESTS FOR PLACE

Race Between Wannamaker and Stice Extremely Close—May Take Official Count to Decide Some of Winners—Contests Were Hard Fought and Cleanest in Years

One of the most interesting primary elections in years was that held Wednesday. There were a number of sharp contests among Republican aspirants for office, and in several instances the results were not finally decided until all the precincts had been heard from. Because of the large number of candidates, the work of compiling the returns was slow and at 3 o'clock this morning the election officials in district No. 9 were still at work, and in district No. 4 the returns were just ready.

Totals are given elsewhere on Republican candidates for county offices. The returns for the state ticket are less complete. It is known, however, that the following have carried the county by strong majorities:

Senator—William B. McKinley. Mawson ..... 140
Governor—John G. Oglesby. Cantrell ..... 64
Lieutenant governor—Fred E. Sterling.

Secretary of state—Louis L. Emerson.
Auditor—Andrew Russell.
Treasurer—George E. Keys.
Attorney general—Edward J. Bundage.

Clerk of the supreme court—Charles W. Vail.
The indications are that for congressman at large John J. Brown and Richard Yates received the largest number of votes. For members of the legislature, Earl B. Seary and Samuel E. Moore substantial majorities. Returns from Sangamon county indicate that the heavy vote there for Mr. Frisch will likely make him one of the nominees.

The canvass of the vote will begin Friday morning. County Clerk G. L. Riggs has arranged with Squire Whitlock of Murrayville and Squire A. B. Opperman to serve as his assistants. The canvassing will require several days as the task is large.

Returns on the Democratic ticket was not as complete as on Republican. However there were practically no contests. The greatest interest was shown in the race for county commissioner between H. E. Oglesby and C. C. Berryman. The returns so far compiled indicate the nomination of Mr. Oglesby.

INCOMPLETE COUNTY RETURNS ON STATE CANDIDATES
Unofficial returns from 27 precincts out of 43 in Morgan county give the following:

Outside the heads of the ticket there were almost no complications except in the case of some congressional districts.

In the 11th district Ira C. Copley, Republican member, was 1,400 votes behind Frank A. McCarthy with about one-fourth of the district heard from.

In the 22nd district a total of 39 precincts gave Representative W. J. Rodenburg 1548 and John J. Brenholt 1,242.

In the 18th district "Uncle Joe" Cannon was forging ahead over E. B. Coole, Cannon leading by about 1,000.

In the Chicago district John W. Rainey, Democrat, had 1,660 votes when 25 of the 159 precincts in his district had been tallied. His nearest competitor had less than 200.

Another Democratic congressman, James McAndrews of the sixth district, was almost equally fortunate. With 49 out of 299 precincts reported he had 1,113 votes against 374 for Martin Walsh and 125 for Michael Cleary.

Fred A. Britten, Republican of the 9th district who came into prominence recently by charges that British government funds were being used for propaganda in this country in favor of the league of nations had a big lead on 25 precincts in his district over John A. Peterson.

The women's vote in Chicago showed a trend toward the Lowden ticket. Small had obtained two-thirds of the men's vote when 800 of the 2,210 city precincts had been reported but on these same precincts more than 60 per cent of the women voted for Oglesby.

In the senatorial race Smith polled approximately 68 per cent of the men's votes and McKinley received five-eighths of the women's ballots.

Macleay Hoynes, Democratic state's attorney and a candidate for re-election, trailed Michael L. Igoe, minority leader in the state house of representatives, by 4,600 votes when 857 precincts had been reported. The totals were: Hoynes, 17,361; Igoe, 21,907.

Confers With Hillis

Before leaving for Columbus to play golf this afternoon, Senator Harding conferred with Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Brooklyn tabernacle. Dr. Hillis later gave out a statement in which he said that "possibly one reason why the tide is ebbing away from the party in power, and 'is running so strongly toward Senator Harding' is the serious note of his self-restraint; the serenity of his mind; the fact that he is a man of great judgment; his generous judgments of those who disagree with him; the total absence of any bitterness in any word of his; his spirit of kindness; his good will, his big broad Americanism, his constant use of the words 'back to the constitution'; the way in which he restrains his friends with the words 'remember that this is a government of law and not of men'; the earnest attitude in which he uttered these words."

"My primary purpose in these speeches in the building of American manhood and the strengthening of American institutions; my secondary is to be. But I would a thousand times rather lose the presidency and be conscious that I have done something for American manhood and America than the presidency thru any word or deed that might weaken faith at home or abroad in our free institutions, or injure the quality of American manhood—all have been convinced that at least there is a man that is equal to and in a sense bigger than any office whatever."

JOHN MCCORMICK CANCELS ENGAGEMENTS

London, Sept. 15.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Melbourne says John McCormick the singer, has cancelled all his Australian engagements and is leaving immediately for London to escape the disagreeable situation which has arisen as a result of the demonstration by part of the audience at a recent concert rising and singing the British national anthem and some of them shouting that Mr. McCormick was a Sinn Feiner.

COMMITTEE WILL WORK OUT GRAIN MARKETING PLAN

Will Take Two Years to Get the Plan in Action

PROMINENT MEN ON COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The American Farm Bureau Federation announced today the personnel of the committee of seventeen appointed by President J. W. Howard to work out a plan for co-operative marketing of the American grain crop.

Methods of co-operating grain elevator associations in the mid-west and of the grain raisers of Western Canada will be studied as well as the systems used in similar marketing enterprises by fruit growers and other producers, the federation said, estimating that it would require two years of preparation before a co-operative plan for the grain crop could be put in action.

The committee includes George Livingstone, chief of the United States Bureau of Markets; Dr. H. J. Waters, Kansas City; C. H. Gustafson, president Nebraska Farmers' Union; William G. Eckhardt, Illinois State Farm Bureau; P. E. Powell, Missouri Farmers' Grain Dealers' association; C. A. Bingham, Michigan state farm bureau; John C. Boles, Kansas Equity Union; Clifford Thorn, Chicago, counsel for shippers' organizations; Chicago, A. L. Middleton, Eagle Grove, Iowa, and Ralph Snyder, Kansas State Farm Bureau.

SERIOUS COAL FAMINE FACES SEVERAL STATES

Must Modify Priority Rulings to the North-west

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 15.—Representatives of practically all branches of the coal industry in Ohio, Michigan and Indiana agreed here today that there will be a serious coal famine in the middle west unless priority rulings of the interstate commerce commission on coal shipments to the northwest and New England districts are modified immediately. Decision as to whether the interstate commerce commission will be appealed to, was left to the utilities commissions whose representatives participated in the meeting. Relief that probably will be asked for will be the loading of a specified number of cars at the mines each day for midwest consumption.

It was stated that at present Indiana consumers have less than twenty-two percent less than their winter requirements. Ohio consumers 16.5 per cent and Michigan consumers less than thirty percent.

The interstate commerce commission will do its level best to correct any injustice in my opinion," asserted A. G. Gutheim, Washington, representing the American Railway association commission on cars. C. T. Ross, secretary of the Michigan coal commission represented that state.

FAVORS ABOLITION OF VACATION PERIOD

Sacramento, Calif., Sept. 15.—Abolition of summer school vacations for children between 8 and 16 years of age because the vacation period "induced habits of idleness and criminality among boys," was advocated by Will C. Wood, state superintendent of schools today.

Wood said exceptions should be made in the case of children who assist in harvesting fruit and similar work.

VACATION STRIKE IS NOT SETTLED

Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 15.—Failing to receive assurance from Secretary of Labor Wilson or the mine operators that there would be no discrimination against monthly men who quit work in sympathy with the miners the policy committee of the anthracite mine workers adjourned its third day's session here tonight without taking any action toward ending the hard coal workers' "vacation" strike.

SENATOR KENYON HEADS DELEGATION

Washington, Sept. 15.—Senator Kenyon of Iowa heads the American delegation to the Fifteenth annual conference against alcoholism which opens here September 21. The appointment announced its third day's session here tonight without taking any action toward ending the hard coal workers' "vacation" strike.

DRYS WANT SPIRIT AS WELL AS LETTER OF LAW ENFORCED

CRITICIZE INTERNAL REVENUE BUREAU

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—A program designed to rid the government of officials who do not observe or enforce the "spirit as well as the letter" of the Volstead act was put under way at the first session of a national conference of Anti-Saloon League officials.

The first step toward carrying out the proposed program, the conference appointed a committee to draft a resolution, which, league officials said, would serve notice on federal judges that their "sacred duties must be sacredly performed."

The committee was instructed to report tomorrow. Impeachment proceedings were suggested as a means to compel lax judges to employ in a proper manner the penal provisions of the Prohibition enforcement act in dealing with persons convicted of violating the law.

Wants Congress Kept Dry.

The conference in its discussions evinced a determination that the next congress be made "dry" and "kept dry." Speakers expressed the fear that "the power of the veto is not entirely downed" and unless a majority in maintained in congress favorable to rigid enforcement, the prohibition code may be changed.

Administrative officers, it was indicated, also will be brought within the league's program, several speakers asserting that in a great many instances administrative officers were not functioning to the satisfaction of the "drys." The proposal was made that the league "build fire under those who betray the trust of their appointment."

Fear Liquor Interests.

The opinion was expressed that liquor interests might seek to defeat the aim of the law by obtaining the appointment of officials who would "wink at some kinds of violations."

The discussion of the league of officials brought half a dozen vigorous attacks on officials of varying grades who have to do with enforcement of the Volstead act. The internal revenue bureau was criticised for issuing "seeds of wholesalers' permits" and federal judges were accused of "codding" moonshiners and bootleggers. Many judges were pictured as too lenient and having permitted violators to escape punishment with fines of a few hundred dollars.

MAC SWINEY GETS FOUR HOURS' SLEEP

Is Growing Weaker, However, and in Great Pain—Determined to Carry Out Vow.

London, Sept. 15.—After visiting the lord mayor of Cork in prison where he is on a hunger strike, this morning, Annie MacSwiney said her brother had had four hours' sleep during the night and that although he was in great pain and growing weaker, he was refreshed by this rest.

Mayor MacSwiney is still being massaged, but his sister declared she was convinced nothing in nourishment was being given him. She said he was as determined as ever to carry out his vow to the end for the sake of the freedom of Ireland, and declared: "Do you think I'm going to give away after my long hunger strike?"

BOY SHOT WHILE HUNTING DUCKS

Hurlington, Iowa, Sept. 16.—John W. Doane, eighteen, son of Mrs. J. Edwin Doane, formerly of Chicago, was shot and probably blinded today while hunting ducks in a canoe on the Mississippi river. He is at a local hospital in a serious condition. His companion, John Dixon, son of Dr. J. W. Dixon, rescued him when the canoe capsized.

OTHER CANDIDATES STAGE SPECTACULAR CONTESTS FOR PLACE

Race Between Wannamaker and Stice Extremely Close—May Take Official Count to Decide Some of Winners—Contests Were Hard Fought and Cleanest in Years

One of the most interesting primary elections in years was that held Wednesday. There were a number of sharp contests among Republican aspirants for office, and in several instances the results were not finally decided until all the precincts had been heard from. Because of the large number of candidates, the work of compiling the returns was slow and at 3 o'clock this morning the election officials in district No. 9 were still at work, and in district No. 4 the returns were just ready.

Totals are given elsewhere on Republican candidates for county offices. The returns for the state ticket are less complete. It is known, however, that the following have carried the county by strong majorities:

Senator—William B. McKinley	Mawson	140
Governor—John G. Oglesby	Cantrell	64
Lieutenant governor—Fred E. Sterling
Secretary of state—Louis L. Emmerson
Auditor—Andrew Russell
Treasurer—George E. Keys
Attorney general—Edward J. Bundage
Clerk of the supreme court—Charles W. Vail

The indications are that for congressman at large John J. Brown and Richard Yates received the largest number of votes. For members of the legislature, Earl B. Searcy and Samuel E. Moore substantial majorities. Returns from Sangamon county indicate that the heavy vote there for Mr. Frisch will likely make him one of the nominees.

The canvass of the vote will begin Friday morning. County Clerk G. L. Riggs has arranged with Squire Whitlock of Murrayville and Squire A. B. Opperman to serve as his assistants. The canvassing will require several days as the task is large.

Returns on the Democratic ticket was not as complete as on Republican. However there were practically no contests. The greatest interest was shown in the race for county commissioner between H. E. Ogles and C. C. Berryman. The returns so far as compiled indicate the nomination of Mr. Ogles.

INCOMPLETE COUNTY RETURNS ON STATE CANDIDATES

Unofficial returns from 27 precincts out of 43 in Morgan county give the following:

For Governor—Oglesby, 1828; Small, 1384.
For lieutenant governor—Sterling, 2231; Miller, 824.
Secretary of state—Emmerson, 2285; Reid, 694.
Auditor—Russel, 2759; Johnson, 703.
Attorney general—Brundage, 1510; Barr, 1402.

In accordance with the plans of the educational department of the state literacy tests are to be applied to 200,000 school children in Illinois above the first and second grades. The tests will be beneficial if they result in any changes of educational methods which will improve the conditions for the average pupil. After all, it is the average pupils in which the educational system as such is interested. Usually such investigations result in showing that about 100 per cent of the children do not equal fully normal standards.

Jack Dempsey will battle 'em all, the short and the fat and the tall; he'll meet any chap who's intent on a scrap, and plaster him over the wall. Oh, long have we yearned for a champ who'd fight at the wink of a lamp; and it's been a long day, I am prompted to say, since we had a good boy of that stamp! But Dempsey, he rather would fight, than go to a lecture at night; he has no excuse, when he's asked to produce "invincible left" or the right. I hope in some bright coming year the prize ring will quite disappear; outdoors and outland it will rest 'neath the sod, and no one will hand it a tear. But while it's a human device I think that the pug should cut ice, and put up a mill with a hearty good will when anyone offers the price. So Dempsey's a solace to me; I watch all his motions with glee; a fighter who'll fight is a joy to the sight, whatever his conditions may be!

INTERNATIONAL COURT FURTHER CONFOUNDS HARDING

Statement Made By Gov. Cox in Addresses Made in Utah

GIVEN WARM WELCOME IN STATE

Salt Lake City, Sept. 15.—Plans for an international court under the league of nations as reported from Paris, were advanced by Governor Cox of Ohio, in his Utah campaign today as an argument for the league. They further confounded Senator Harding and other Republican opponents the Democratic candidate declared in addresses here tonight in the great Mormon tabernacle and earlier today at Ogden.

Reiterating that the Republican league critics had failed to offer any substitute and had expected that Elihu Root would bring forth a new plan, Governor Cox made the following statement on the reported outline.

"Today we learn that the committee of which Mr. Root is a member has made its report, establishing a world court for the adjudication of questions according to rules of law. We find, however, that this court is a part of the league covenant. That Mr. Root and his colleagues, were appointed by the council of the league; that they made their report to the council of the league and this report is now to be submitted to the various members of the league. Furthermore it appears that the judges of the court are to be chosen by the council and the assembly of the league and their salaries are to be paid by the league.

Is Essential Part of League

"It is apparent, therefore, that this court of international justice, which Mr. Harding hoped would be a substitute for the league of nations, now appears as an essential part of the league, and one which without the league would have no standing whatever.

"This line having been cut off, Mr. Harding sitting on the end, we may confidently look forward to another frantic effort from Marion in an attempt to confuse the public and to keep both Senator Johnson, who is against any kind of a league and Elihu Root, who is not only for the league, but who has performed valiant services for the existing league, for the party candidate."

A demonstrative welcome was enjoyed by the candidate all thru Utah.

Late tonight he left to speak tomorrow at Elko, Sparks, Winnemucca, Lovelock and Reno, Nev., enroute to California.

Treasurer of United States Says Residents of Islands Oppose Independence — Agreeably Surprised at Progress.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Opposition to Philippine independence in the islands comes from Americans resident there, according to a statement obtained today by the Philippine Press Bureau from John Burke, treasurer of the United States who has just returned from a trip to the islands.

"From my observation I believe there is a strong sentiment among the people for independence and they are capable of self-government, but the Americans there are opposed to it. I was very agreeably surprised with the progress made in the Philippine islands, since American occupation."

ORGANIZATION CANDIDATES GAIN

Delayed Returns in New York Show Increased Majorities

Wadsworth Defeats Mrs. Poole.

New York, Sept. 15.—Delayed returns from the New York state primary held yesterday, tabulated tonight, gave increased majorities to Republican and Democratic organization candidates in all statewide contests.

With but 752 districts missing out of a total of 7,274, Nathan L. Miller had a majority of 119,194 over State Senator George F. Thompson in the contest for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. Thompson, however, was the unopposed choice for the prohibition nomination for governor. Governor Alfred E. Smith was unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

In the contest for the Republican nomination for United States senator James Wadsworth, Jr., organization designee who is seeking re-election, had a majority of 126,697. He defeated Mrs. Ella A. Poole, president of the state branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, by a vote of approximately three and one half to one.

MISSOURI PLATFORM CONTAINS MANY PLANKS

Democrats Adopt Platform Commending Many of Cox's Policies—Express Sympathy for Ireland.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 15.—With adoption of a platform, perfection of committee organization and arrangement of details for the fall campaign, the Missouri Democratic platform convention in session here adjourned early this morning.

The platform has numerous planks. One of the most important, party leaders say, is that in which the Democrats declare for an "equitable and just system of taxation," and oppose any increase in taxes on real estate for state purposes. Income and corporation tax legislation is approved, however.

The platform asserts the right of labor to bargain collectively and to organize and choose its representatives, condemns compulsory military training in time of peace; denounces "efforts of the Republican machine to buy the 'presidential election'" commends Governor Cox for his "expose of the Republican slush fund, expresses sympathy for Ireland's struggle for self-determination."

Convention officials said today that no action had been taken as yet in connection with an attack made last night upon Ben M. Neale of Greenfield, former chairman of the state central committee was severely beaten by unidentified men.

IMPORTANCE OF MUSIC IN GENERAL EDUCATION

Laymen Now Realize That Music is Vital Element in Education—College of Music Offers Best Facilities in Musical Education.

Music is a vital, necessary element in general education. Appreciation of this fact is finding expression in new and significant ways. Community cooperation and underwriting of symphony concerts and artists' courses by Rotary and Woman's clubs, countrywide agitation for a national conservatory, a secretary of music in our cabinet, etc., show the increased interest of the laymen. "Music for the many, not the few." The more people we have educated musically, the more forceful constructive citizens we will develop for the community.

Intelligent, progressive parents realize the importance of beginning music education for their children during the early impressionable years. To you we are presenting our children's department, with new courses of unusual interest and appeal.

Children's Department—Piano

This department is under the direction of Miss Belle Mehus, newly added to the College of Music faculty.

Miss Mehus is splendidly qualified for this work by virtue of ability and training combined with a strong personality and enthusiasm for the cause of elementary education in music. The department is organized according to the most progressive methods.

Class work in piano playing is offered for beginners.

A Model School is conducted Saturday mornings, to which all private piano students are eligible without fee. These lessons, including rhythm, melody, harmony, etc., develop both musical and intellectual faculties. Thus we provide the fundamentals of genuine musicianship in an attractive form.

Violin.

The department of violin offers unusual opportunities in class work for beginners, under the personal instruction of Miss Clara C. Moore. Miss Moore has spent the past two summers in study with Mr. Carl Fiedler, one of the greatest living exponents of class work. The keen interest in these classes as demonstrated by work in studio and public recital last year proves their appeal and worth. This is really a splendid opportunity for beginners to get a thorough fundamental training in violin at a nominal fee.

The College of Music is better prepared than ever this year to interest and care for all students of music education, either from a serious professional standpoint or that of general culture.

Director Pearson confers with parents and students daily; hours 9 to 12 a. m. Office in Music Hall, Illinois college phone 1714. Illinois Woman's college. Special teachers may be seen by appointment after September 18.

Jack Johnson has been sentenced to a year and a day in Leavenworth penitentiary. It is to be hoped that in that institution the pugilist will not be allowed special privileges he has had at the jails in northern Illinois. There he has been more of a guest than an inmate and automobile rides have been a part of his daily routine.

In accordance with the plans of the educational department of the state literacy tests are to be applied to 200,000 school children in Illinois above the first and second grades. The tests will be beneficial if they result in any changes of educational methods which will improve the conditions for the average pupil. After all, it is the average pupils in which the educational system as such is interested. Usually such investigations result in showing that about 100 per cent of the children do not equal fully normal standards.

DEMPSEY

Jack Dempsey will battle "em all, the short and the fat and the tall; he'll meet any chap who is in on a scrap, and plaster him over the wall. Oh, long have we yearned for a champ who'd fight at the wink of a lamp; and it's been, a long day, I am prompted to say, since we had a good boy of that stamp! But Dempsey, he rather would fight, "han go to a lecture at night; he has no excuse, when he's asked to produce "invincible left" or the right. I hope in some bright coming year the prize ring will quite disappear; the outworn and outlived it will rest on the sod, and no one will hand it a tear. But while it's a human device I think that the pugs should cut ice, and put up a mill with a hearty good will when anyone offers the price. So Dempsey's a solace to me; I watch all his motions with glee; a fighter who'll fight is a joy to the sight, whatever his conditions may be!

INTERNATIONAL COURT FURTHER CONFOUNDS HARDING

GIVEN WARM WELCOME IN STATE

Salt Lake City, Sept. 15.—Plans for an international court under the league of nations as reported from Paris, were advanced by Governor Cox of Ohio, in his Utah campaign today as an argument for the league. They further confound Senator Harding and other Republican opponents of the Democratic candidate declared in addresses here tonight in the great Mormon tabernacle and earlier today at Ogden.

Reiterating that the Republican league critics had failed to offer any substitute and had expected that Elihu Root would bring forth a new plan, Governor Cox made the following statement on the reported outline.

"Today we learn that the committee of which Mr. Root is a member has made its report, establishing a world court for the adjudication of questions according to rules of law. We find, however, that this court is a part of the league covenant. That Mr. Root and his colleagues, were appointed by the council of the league; that they made their report to the council of the league and this report is now to be submitted to the various members of the league. Furthermore it appears that the judges of the court are to be chosen by the council and the assembly of the league and their salaries are to be paid by the league.

Is Essential Part of League "It is apparent, therefore, that this court of international justice, which Mr. Harding hoped would be a substitute for the league of nations, now appears as an essential part of the league, and one which without the league would have no standing whatever.

"This limb having been cut off, Mr. Harding sitting on the end, we may confidently look forward to another frantic effort from Marion in an attempt to confuse the public and to keep both Senator Johnson, who is against any kind of a league and Elihu Root, who is not only for the league, but who has performed valiant services for the existing league, for the party candidate."

A demonstrative welcome was enjoyed by the candidate all thru Utah.

Late tonight he left to speak tomorrow at Elko, Sparks, Winnemucca, Lovelock and Reno, Nev., enroute to California.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS COUNCIL WILL MEET Paris, Sept. 15.—The council of the league of nations will meet in Paris on Sept. 18. Leon Bourgeois will preside.

AMERICAN RESIDENTS OPPOSE INDEPENDENCE

Treasurer of United States Says Residents of Islands Oppose Independence — Agreably Surprised at Progress.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Opposition to Philippine independence in the islands comes from Americans resident there, according to a statement obtained today by the Philippine Press Bureau from John Burke, treasurer of the United States, who has just returned from a trip to the islands.

"From my observation I believe there is a strong sentiment among the people for independence and they are capable of self-government, but the Americans there are opposed to it. I was very agreeably surprised with the progress made in the Philippine islands, since American occupation."

ORGANIZATION CANDIDATES GAIN

Delayed Returns in New York Show Increased Majorities — Wadsworth Defeats Mrs. Poole.

New York, Sept. 15.—Delayed returns from the New York state primary held yesterday, tabulated tonight, gave increased majorities to Republican and Democratic organization candidates in all statewide contests.

With but 752 districts missing out of a total of 7,274, Nathan L. Miller had a majority of 119,194 over State Senator George F. Thompson in the contest for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. Thompson, however, was the unopposed choice for the prohibition nomination for governor. Governor Alfred E. Smith was unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

In the contest for the Republican nomination for United States senator James Wadsworth, Jr., organization designee who is seeking re-election, had a majority of 126,697. He defeated Mrs. Ella A. Poole, president of the state branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, by a vote of approximately three and one half to one.

MILITARY PATROL CAUSES TWO DEATHS

Dublin, Sept. 15.—Two men were killed during a fight with a military patrol at Ballinglu, county Roscommon, early this morning. Another man succumbed to his wounds during the day. It is alleged that the military came upon the men as they had raided a vacated police barracks.

WILL NEED RUNOFF PRIMARY FOR SENATOR

New Orleans, Sept. 15.—Incomplete returns from both city and county tonight from yesterday's statewide primary indicated that a runoff primary would be necessary to determine the senatorial nominee. Indications were that Jared Y. Sanders of Bogalusa, former governor and congressman from the sixth district and Edwin S. Brossard, brother of the late United States Senator Robert Brossard, would finish less than a thousand votes apart.

MISSOURI PLATFORM CONTAINS MANY PLANKS

Democrats Adopt Platform Commending Many of Cox Fallacies—Express Sympathy for Ireland.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 15.—With adoption of a platform, perfection of committee organization and arrangement of details for the fall campaign, the Missouri Democratic platform convention in session here adjourned early this morning.

The platform has numerous planks. One of the most important, party leaders say, is that in which the Democrats declare for an "equitable and just system of taxation," and oppose any increase in taxes on real estate for state purposes. Income and corporation tax legislation is approved, however.

The platform asserts the right of labor to bargain collectively and to organize and choose its representatives, condemns compulsory military training in time of peace; denounces "efforts of the Republican machine to buy the presidential election;" commends Governor Cox for his "expose of the Republican slush fund, expresses sympathy for Ireland's struggle for self-determination."

Convention officials said today that no action had been taken as yet in connection with an attack made last night upon Ben M. Neale of Greenfield, former chairman of the state central committee, was severely beaten by unidentified men.

IMPORTANCE OF MUSIC IN GENERAL EDUCATION

Laymen Now Realize That Music is Vital Element in Education—College of Music Offers Best Facilities in Musical Education.

Music is a vital, necessary element in general education. Appreciation of this fact is finding expression in new and significant ways. Community cooperation and underwriting of symphony concerts and artists' courses by Rotary and Woman's clubs, countrywide agitation for a national conservatory, a secretary of music in our cabinet, etc., show the increased interest of the laymen. "Music for the many, not the few." The more people we have educated musically, the more forceful constructive citizens we will develop for the community.

Intelligent, progressive parents realize the importance of beginning music education for their children during the early impressionable years. To you we are presenting our children's department, with new courses of unusual interest and appeal.

Children's Department—Piano This department is under the direction of Miss Belle Mehus, newly added to the College of Music faculty.

Miss Mehus is splendidly qualified for this work by virtue of ability and training combined with a strong personality and enthusiasm for the cause of elementary education in music. The department is organized according to the most progressive methods.

Class work in piano playing is offered for beginners.

A Model School is conducted Saturday mornings, to which all private piano students are eligible without fee. These lessons, including rhythm, melody, harmony, etc., develop both musical and intellectual faculties. Thus we provide the fundamentals of genuine musicianship in an attractive form.

Violin.

The department of violin offers unusual opportunities in class work for beginners, under the personal instruction of Miss Clara C. Moore. Miss Moore has spent the past two summers in study with Mr. Carl Stockenberg, one of the greatest living exponents of class work. The keen interest in these classes as demonstrated by work in studio and public recital last year proves their appeal and worth. This is really a splendid opportunity for beginners to get a thorough fundamental training in violin at a nominal fee.

The College of Music is better prepared than ever this year to interest and care for all students of music education, either from a serious professional standpoint or that of general culture. Director Pearson confers with parents and students daily; hours 9 to 12 a. m. Office in Music Hall, Illinois phone 1714. Illinois Woman's college. Special teachers may be seen by appointment after September 18.

LATE CORN WILL FULLY MATURE

This is Opinion of Weekly Crop Report—Are Ripening Fast and Late Fall Will Make Them.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 15.—Late fields of corn in Illinois are growing rapidly, and will fully mature if there is a late fall, according to the weekly crop report of the weather bureau issued here today.

"Many fields," adds the report, "that were planted early are ripening fast and will be ready by the twentieth while the bulk of the corn will not be out of danger until October 1st to 10th."

"Silos filling is under way. There have been a few reports of wind damage and the chinch bug persists in a few sections of the southwest. Fall plowing is making good headway except in parts of the north where retarded by hard ground. Pastures and meadows are generally improved except in certain areas in the north."

Marshal Petain and his bride left last evening for the Riviera, where the former owns a small estate.

The marriage is a realization of a life-long dream of the marshal who knew the bride when she was a very young girl, long before her first marriage. He always cherished a tender memory of her and hoped that some day, circumstances would enable him to marry her.

A JACKSONVILLE MAN AND WIFE WELL EMPLOYED

S. A. Fairbank has favored the Journal with two copies of the Summer, Washington, News-Index. One contains an extended account of a cannery operated by H. A. Baker, Inc., and doing a large business in putting up the fine fruits of that region. It is a large affair and does a great business.

Another copy of the same paper contains an account of some social times enjoyed by the several hundred employees of the great establishment. J. R. Landers, formerly of this city, is head of the boiler room and his wife is forewoman. The article tells of a fine auto expedition which was immensely enjoyed by all who were participating.

Then there was the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Landers and they were royally remembered by their fellow employees. First came a huge bouquet of 25 choice pink roses presented them in the factory. Then that evening a surprise party visited them at their home and gave them a quaint loving cup which a traveler had brought from Egypt, and a sterling silver sandwich tray of elegant make.

The whole affair was very delightful and greatly enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Landers occupy important positions in the cannery.

Barbasol Softens the Beard and Heals As It Shaves.

Chemistry has another feather in its cap. Now it makes possible the "smartless" shave.

The old scraping and pulling method of our grandfathers is replaced by an easy, pleasant method that even does away with the unsavory mug. Men who have tried this modern shaving preparation proclaim it the greatest discovery since shaving was invented. A remarkable ointment that heals the face and keeps it in the best condition at all times. It easily softens the toughest beard, yet will not harm the most delicate skin.

All druggists recommend Barbasol and most of them sell it. If your druggist hasn't Barbasol it will be mailed to you on receipt of price, 35 cents, and druggist's name. Made only by the Napco Corporation, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Can You Afford to Drive Out Your Veterinarian?

The farmer needs the veterinarian as much as the veterinarian needs the farmer. The farmer has to stay "put." You have your farm and have to work it. The veterinarian doesn't have to stay in one place. If he isn't satisfied he can pick up and leave and go where he is assured fair treatment.

And he is doing just that thing. It is only a question of time, and a short time at that, when the best veterinarians will be forced out of Rock Island, Mercer, Lee, Hancock, Fulton, Brown and Edgar counties in Illinois, if the farmers in those localities persist in their present line of procedure.

The question of whether or not certain farmers are capable of vaccinating their own hogs does not enter into the discussion. The point is that with the advent of the automobile horse practice received a solar plexus. Veterinarians, faced with the failure of their incomes, started to consider new callings. Then came the discovery of the serum virus treatment for the prevention of hog cholera and the veterinary profession took a new lease on life.

You can't expect a man to stay in your locality and be content with skim milk when he can go elsewhere and get at least some of the cream. You can't expect a veterinarian to stay if he can't make a living—and he can't possibly earn a living if all he has to depend on is what little horse and cattle practice he has. But although this horse and cattle practice doesn't bring him in much money it is essential to you and your neighborhood that a veterinarian should be available when you do need him.

If there were no veterinarians at all in this state wouldn't it be the first aim of the Agricultural Association to see that capable veterinarians were induced to locate here? Such being the case is it wise to force them to leave? If your locality is known to have forced out one veterinarian won't you have difficulty in getting another to attempt making a living there? The services of a capable veterinarian are essential to successful live stock farming—but unless your veterinarian can earn a reasonable living, he can't continue to practice in your locality.

Every Drop of Your Blood Should be Absolutely Pure

You cannot overestimate the importance of keeping the blood free of impurities. When you realize that the heart is constantly pumping this vital fluid to all parts of the body, you can readily see that any impurity in the blood will cause serious complications.

Any slight disorder or impurity is a source of danger, as every vital organ of the body depends upon the blood supply to properly perform its functions.

You can in a large measure avoid liability to disease by the use of S.S.S., the wonderful blood remedy that has been in constant use for more than fifty years. S. S. S. cleanses the blood thoroughly. It is sold by druggists everywhere.

LATE CORN WILL FULLY MATURE

This is Opinion of Weekly Crop Report—Are Ripening Fast and Late Fall Will Make Them.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 15.—Late fields of corn in Illinois are growing rapidly, and will fully mature if there is a late fall, according to the weekly crop report of the weather bureau issued here today.

"Many fields," adds the report, "that were planted early are ripening fast and will be safe by the twentieth while the bulk of the corn will not be out of danger until October 1st to 10th."

"Silos filling is under way. There have been a few reports of wind damage and the chinch-bug persists in a few sections of the southwest. Fall plowing is making good headway except in parts of the north where retarded by hard ground. Pastures and meadows are generally improved except in certain areas in the north."

JACKSONVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

By ENSLEY MOORE.

(This article prepared at the request of the Committee arranging for the laying of the High School Corner Stone.)

The Journal of July 9, 1900, had the following:

The building at the northwest corner of West State street and Fayette street, which is now almost torn down to the ground, has been known of late years as the High School, but to the older citizens, many of whom received their first schooling—say nothing of whippings—within its walls, the inscription on the front of the building

West Jacksonville District School A. D. MDCCCL

meant a great deal more than the latter name of the edifice.

Few now living can realize all that the opening of that school meant to Jacksonville, Ill., many states of this union, and even to the whole world. For out of that old building have gone men and women to all parts of the earth, better prepared to elevate mankind by reason of having been taught there in the rudiments or further studies of a liberal education.

It is doubtful whether there was another so adequate a school building or one of as much architectural pretension, in the state of Illinois, at the time our old high school was erected, for mind you the date was, "A. D. 1850." 50 years ago. Just after the Mexican war and over a decade before the Civil War; before the grand free school system of the state of Illinois was in full running order. There it was that Newton Bateman, graduate of Illinois College in the class of 1843, editor of the Illinois Teacher, principal of the Jacksonville Female Academy, superintendent of the Illinois instruction of Illinois from 1859 to 1875, except two years, professor in and president of Knox College, president of the Alumni of Illinois College for many years, grand old man and true Christian, laid the foundations for his life work and fame, a fame known not only thru-out America, but recognized and honored by the scholars of the old world as well.

And it is understood that Dr. Bateman was influential in securing so creditable a structure for our little town, then containing about 3,500 inhabitants.

The district then contained all that part of Jacksonville lying west of Main street, and the limits of the school district lying north and south of West State street.

As stated in a recent Journal, by Mr. John R. Loar, the contractor for the building was Mr. William D. Humphrey, who died here a few years ago. Mr. Loar can always take pride and "tell it to the generation following," that he had a part in the construction of a building so well built, and that was the means of doing such a world of good to hundreds and thousands of the rising generations and those that they have influenced. For this was not only a school house for

THE APEX

The APEX Washer will save you the three R's of washday—no more Rubbing, Ringing or Rinsing by hand. After your clothes come spotlessly clean from the APEX oscillating tub, the swinging wringer does the rest. It wrings them into the rinse water, then into the blueing, then out ready for the line. This is the modern way of washing everything from the gauziest fabrics to the heaviest blankets—so quick, so easy and so saving of your strength and clothes. If you do not have electricity in your home, we can wire your house completely or sufficiently to run the washing machine; the cost would be inconsequential.

students, but a training school for teachers.

As first planned the top story of the house had a rounded roof and ends, to allow proper headroom for Masonic lodges and their ante-rooms. This was of shingles and there was a skylight in the main room, occupying the eastern part of the third story, and having only two windows at the east end for additional light and ventilation. In later years, when the room was used for school purposes, this skylight used to be very rudely shaken by the heavy winds of that day, and it sometimes seemed as if it would be torn off and the building wrecked, much to the misery of the unfortunate youth temporarily confined there during storm hours.

Harmour Lodge, No. 3, contributed to the finishing of the top story, and that organization, and Jacksonville Lodge 120 as well as the Chapter met in the upper story until about 1856, probably finding the school house too far off for the convenience of most of the members.

A school is properly for the benefit of the scholars, and there is many an old man or woman who can recall incidents of lasting influence in their lives, to say nothing of the younger people who have not yet seen the old school house thru the perspective of years, who will realize that the sketch can furnish but a skeleton of the history which clustered about the building now reduced to unseemly rubbish.

Hon. Edward McConnell is authorized to state that the building was not opened for school purposes until the fall session of 1851, the date on the front probably referring to the time when work was commenced in the erection of the house. He recalls this because of his having then begun school there, where he attended for four years, preparing for Illinois College.

Newton Bateman was the first principal and the male teachers were generally addressed as Mister, instead of as Professor, a manner to be preferred in this day. Mr. Bateman taught a general school, that is the studies were not only primary, but also preparatory to college or to female academies. He established his reputation as a great teacher, rather as principal as well, and attracted scholars not only from this but from other states. It is difficult to find who were his first assistants, but he probably had four. Among these was his wife, formerly Miss Sarah Dayton, a delightful lady, who died in 1857. Among the earlier teachers were Mrs. Mary Amanda Divine, then known as Miss McMackin, who died in Atlantic City, N. J., in January, 1895, her last home having been in Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Ellen Crosby; Miss Knap, sister of the then famous Elder Knap; Mr. Warren; James H. Blodgett now in the city of Washington; Miss Harriet Reed, now in California, a daughter of Dr. M. M. L. Reed; Miss Emilie Hughes, later Mrs. James Dayton, and dead for some years past; Miss Rogers and "Old Man Kennedy," as he was then known, a very eccentric teacher of the old school, who believed in the efficiency of the rod. Of the teachers who began service here as assistants of Mr. Bateman two deserve special mention, the first being Miss Elizabeth W. Cheney, of Montague, Mass. She was a lady of more than usual personal attractiveness, possessed of high ability as a teacher, imbued with the feeling that there are many and better things to be taught than mere book knowledge, one being by elegance of manner and by dainty neatness of dress and care of the hair, another by kindly precept and in arousing the ambition of the scholar, and crowned by Christian grace, it would seem that she entered all too soon into heaven some 30 years ago. Another teacher, who had the boys room up stairs in the third story, was a tall, slim young man, who has since become known to a great many more of our people as Judge Edward P. Kirby. Judge Kirby was then as now of elegant personal appearance and the best and most appropriately dressed man the writer has seen in a common school room. He had the happy faculty of commanding the respect of his pupils maintaining a remarkably good order without stiffness, arousing the pupils' ambition and bringing out his manliness, and could impart information exceptionally easily. He was like "Old Man Kennedy," capable of administering "strap oil" very efficiently it is said by those who had good opportunities of knowing.

In the fall of 1858 Mr. Bateman became principal of the Academy and in November of that year was elected state superintendent of instruction and Mr. Robert M. Tunnell, a graduate of Illinois College in 1852, was appointed principal of the West District school. He was an agreeable gentleman and a good teacher, but only continued in the work the two following school years. He is now and has been for some years a Congregational minister at Manhattan, Kansas.

His successor, who began work in the fall of 1860, was Mr. Kirby and he made a number of improvements in the school arrangement even over Mr. Bateman—one being a more careful grading and systematizing of the work. Mr. Kirby was succeeded by another tall, slim young man in his department in the old Masonic hall and the name of this man was Edward A. Tanner. He could not keep away from a young lady out at Waverly, his native place, and after teaching a year he "went west to grow up with the country" in Oregon. From there he returned in 1865 to be a professor in Illinois College, from which he had been graduated in 1857, and to become president of his alma mater in 1882, so remaining until his lamented death in 1892. So the old school helped to prepare another college president. In this connection it is to be remarked that among those who have gone out from that building as pupils have been hundreds who have occupied, as ladies or gentlemen, the highest positions in life in the various communities which have been honored by their presence. A roll of the former pupils of the West District school and of the high school would be a roll of honor to Jacksonville to Illinois and to the whole country. Among the teachers who taught under Mr. Kirby's management, of the school were Miss Eliza J. Hughes now a well known lady of this city; Mrs. Kosciulowski and her daughter Sophie, the former long since dead; Mrs. Pierson; who afterward became Mrs. C. H. Dunbar; Mrs. Matilda H. Williams, Hon. E. P. Kirby's beautiful lady, now of Emporia, Kansas; Miss Martha Fisher, now in California; Mrs. Wallace; Mrs. Morrison, from whom her daughter, Miss Mattie C. Morrison inherited her right to be interested in schools, and Miss Wetmore, an eastern lady of fine presence, elegant manners and an accomplished teacher.

Judge Kirby resigned in 1862 and that Fall his place was taken as principal and well filled by Mr. Michael Sanderson, a graduate of Illinois College in the Class of 1861. Michael Sanderson was one of "nature's noblemen" in personal appearance and character and his management of the school was all that could be desired, but he was marked as a victim of a violent destroyer, consumption, and he was compelled to resign in 1865 and died, universally lamented, that fall. It cannot be recalled that there were any new teachers under Mr. Sanderson, except probably Mr. Thomas W. Catlin, son of Mr. Willies Catlin, of this place, and now a resident of Montana.

Mr. James L. Dyer succeeded Mr. Sanderson as principal, of whom all that can be learned is that he taught a large school, over 500 pupils being in attendance in 1867, the last year that the old district system applied to the management of the building, and the last three trustees were Hon. I. L. Morrison, M. P. Ayers and Judge E. P. Kirby.

An item of curiosity pertaining to the ground upon which the building stood is also of historical value. When the Western Railway had its beginning, in 1839, its track pursued a different course from the present one, and the track came up onto State street, across the present high school grounds, and thence continued down thru the square and on out East State street. It continued, because the railroad began at Mercedosa, came to Jacksonville and eventually followed its advantageous Spring field, Decatur, and other points beyond.

Another item of some interest is that previous to Mr. Kirby's charge of the school the bell was a small one, and was placed in the round hole in the face of the wall in the front gable of the building. After Judge Kirby became principal he procured a much larger bell, ever since in use, and had the cupola built.

The city government was instituted in April, 1867, and that year the board of education began its work. Under the new system the school never became a ward school until 1888. So far as can be established the ward principals of this building have been probably in the order named. Mr. Henry Higgins—afterward county superintendent of schools—now removed to Winchester; Miss Mary A. Selby, since a teacher in the Illinois School for the Deaf, and a member of the board of education; Mrs. Padgett, now Mrs. Frank Hine, of Chicago; Miss Belle R. Kinman, daughter of Col. Kinman, who fell at Chancellorsville, and she undoubtedly shortened her life by her devotion to duty, and Miss Mary French, who is still principal of the Second Ward school, now located on West Lafayette avenue. Among the teachers who served in the ward service may be recalled, Miss Susan Ellis, remembered by many a staid citizen as the chaperone of Rose Cottage; Mrs. Mary Dunlap, Miss Hattie Long, Miss Jennie Wadell, Mrs. M. E. Wallis, Miss Alice E. Holliday, Mrs. Nettie Rawlings, Mrs. J. M. Parrott, Mrs. Smith, Miss Jennie King, and probably others not now recalled but equally deserving of note.

Under the board of education the following persons who served as city superintendents should perhaps be mentioned: Rev. Israel Wilkinson and Messrs. J. M. Alcott, D. H. Harris, H. M. Hamilton, Miss Lyde Kent, Messrs. Ira W. Davenport, John Long, D. T. Harris and J. W. Henningsen, the present incumbent.

The Second Ward school became the high school building in 1888, as stated above, and Miss S. Virginia Graves, a graduate of the Illinois College for Women, and a capable and strong teacher, became principal of the high school, a position she retained until the fall of 1891, when Hugh S. Weston, of Peoria, was appointed as principal. Mr. Weston was graduated from Knox College under Dr. Newton Bateman, and thus the second generation of workers from that distinguished educator's tutelage has come into position of duty and responsibility in the good old West Jacksonville district school. It is but justice to Mr. Weston to say that he does honor alike to his Alma Mater and to his preceptor. Since being used as a high school the following persons are among those who have taught in the old building, if it is not a full list of all who have done so: Misses Helen L. Calky, Agnes S. Lusk, Sarah Hamilton, P. Minnie Alkire, Grace Ward, Ida Walker, Fannie Wakely and Mrs. Lizzie Koch. The gentlemen who have been Messrs. Richard, Harry L. Montgomery, Andrew M. Craig, William N. Filson, A. E. Day, M. Moffett, Fred W. Sanford, Harry F. Scott and Fred J. Fairbank.

This ends a record hard to rival.

ENSLEY MOORE.
The Journal of Sept. 23, 1900, had the following:

Historical Sketch

About the year 1865 it was decided by some of our leading citizens that Jacksonville needed a new school building and that the plans for conducting the school should be changed. Previous to that time the system of schools was under the district plan. As the city was growing rapidly it was decided to have a change in the school charter, going under a special charter and having four wards and a high school. The members of the board of education at this time, as far as I can ascertain, were I. L. Morrison, M. P. Ayers and E. P. Kirby. These gentlemen obtained plans and decided upon the present Fourth Ward building to be used as a ward building and a high school also.

Ground was broken in 1866 and the Washington school begun.

In 1867 and 1868 the high school held its first session. Mr. Wilkinson holding the position of principal, and also the superintendency of the city schools. Mr. Wilkinson was ably assisted in the work by a strong force of teachers, among them Wm. Edgar Ernest Campbell, Edward A. Barber, Miss Harriet Reed, Miss Meritt, Miss Ober. After three years Mr. Wilkinson left and Mr. Olcott held the same position for one year, assisted by Mrs. Hannah Tolbey Volmer, Mrs. Emily Adams Richards and perhaps others. At the end of this year Mr. D. H. Harris was appointed superintendent of the schools and Mr. L. J. Block principal of the high school. It is greatly due to the ability of these gentlemen that our schools have become what they are. They came at a time when broadness and energy were required. They left their impress for good upon the public system of our city. Mr. Block was a wise educator, a friend to all. He thoroughly impressed his personality upon the members of our association. It was under his administration that the first class graduated in 1872. Three young ladies received the first diplomas issued by the board of education of the city and were the first who left the Washington high school. Mr. Block remained with us until 1882, when he left for wider fields of work, and has ever since been one of the leading educators of the mammoth city by the lake. Mr. Harris remained one year more and left for the far west.

Mr. Block was assisted at various times by the following broad and active teachers: Mrs. Emily Adams Richards, Miss Stotters, Miss Pearson, Mrs. Julia Palmer Stevens, Miss Agnes Lusk, Miss Alice Rhoades, Miss Louise Diller, Mrs. Ellen Ramsey, Miss Rich, Miss Harris, Mr. Jenny, Mr. Volmer, Dr. Easter, Miss Sara G. Hamilton, one of the members of the present corps of teachers in our high school, was both a teacher and a pupil under Mr. Block. After an absence of a number of years spent in completing a course of study in Michigan University, he returned to her position in the high school, where he assisted both Mr. Harris and Miss Graves, broad minded and earnest, she has given power and value to the work of the school.

Rev. H. M. Hamill succeeded Mr. Harris and Mr. Block in the capacity of both superintendent of schools and principal of the high school. His good work has lived after him and we feel proud of his record as an educator not only in our city but in the educational line generally. While Mr. Hamill was a true friend of genuine progress and in favor of many radical reforms in educational work, he was inclined to hold firmly to principles and practice which he deemed indispensable and which had been tested by actual experience. He believed in hard study and intelligent individual application on the part of the pupil as the only sure means of securing the highest attainable success in scholarship. He was always anxious to elevate the character and advance interests of the profession of teaching and to promote the cause of popular education in our midst.

Miss Jane Morris and Miss Habermas.

Once more the scene changes. A lady is called to fill the position of principal, Miss Virginia Graves, whose unselfish devotion to the cause of education ever made her popular among her pupils. She was always anxious to have her pupils interested in their work and did much by her pleasant ways to advance them along the line of usefulness. She was assisted by Messrs. Arthur Stevens, Alfred Day, Fred W. Sanford, Fulton, Craig, Moffett, Misses McElroy, Coon, Wakely, Mrs. Koch. During her principalship the public schools had as superintendent Miss Lyde Kent, Mr. I. W. Davenport, Mr. John R. Long, Mr. D. T. Harris, who did much by their untiring interest to promote the good of the schools. Miss Graves was succeeded by the present incumbent, Mr. Hugh Weston, in whose hands the interests of the schools are safe. He is a genial, pleasant man, much thought of by his pupils, ready to do all in his power to aid the work of education.

Mr. J. W. Henniger became superintendent the same year. His experience has made him acquainted with the mind and his uniform kindness to child and teacher has secured for him sincere and lasting friendship in the schools. The teachers of the last few years are Miss Sara Hamilton, Mrs. Koch, Mr. Harry Montgomery, Mrs. Harry Scott, Miss Helen Oakley, Miss Grace Ward, Mr. Fred Fairbank, Miss Oelene. The Alumni association was organized in 1871 and has just completed its first quarter of a century. We have over 400 active members and nearly 100 honorary members. Some have passed away, some have married, many have engaged in the profession of teaching, a number are physicians, a few ministers and lawyers, while a large per cent are business men and women. We have had as presidents, Mr. Will Phillips, Dr. Carl E. Black, Miss Sara Hamilton, Mr. Will Hall, Mr. Harry L. Montgomery, Martha Y. Morrison, Mr. Kl Barr, Mr. Ed Kinman, Mr. Edward Fry. It has been our aim to be the "power behind the throne."

(Miss Morrison referred very complimentarily at some length to the services of Dr. David Prince and the Hon. Geo. W. Smith as long time members of the Board of Education.)

As far as we know the following gentlemen have served as members of the board of education, besides those already mentioned: I. D. Rawlings, Mr. E. Wolcott, Dr. Milligan, A. Gregory, John Marsh, Ensley Moore, John L. Chambers, Rev. H. M. Hamill, Dr. Clampt, Nathan R. Jerald, J. P. Lippincott, George J. Dodd, Edward Weil, Wm. P. Barr, Judge Whitlock, Mr. Rothwell, Dr. Wideman and Miss Mary Selby.

Among the ex-mayors were: Mr. J. O. King, Ed S. Greenleaf, Thomas Knoles, Joseph Tomlinson, John Hopper, Mr. Holly. This history may be faulty, for records were hard to find, but we have done the best we could under existing circumstances. We mentioned the first board of education under whom the existing system of schools was inaugurated, and we close with mentioning the last board: Mayor S. Allen Fairbank, T. B. Orear, T. H. Rapp, Abner Upham, Dr. Duncan, to whom we owe this occasion—"the laying of a corner stone in the new high school"—a much needed structure. The question of a new high school has been agitated for some years and various members have done their part towards getting it started, but thru the courtesy and energy of the present members we are indebted for the erection of the said structure.

Our thanks go to them for the favors shown us. They will aim to keep our schools second to none in our beautiful state. We as an association will do our part in abetting and aiding them in their many undertakings.

Martha Y. Morrison,
President of the Jacksonville High School Alumni Association, Sept. 21, 1900.

The Journal of Sept. 25, 1900, contained an extended account of the laying of the corner-stone of the new High School on the block from State street to Court street and Fayette to Kosciusko streets. Exercises were conducted by the Masonic Grand Lodge of the state. But lack of space now forbids further mention. Supt. J. W. Hemminger presided.

The New Building

was dedicated January 1, 1902, but again, lack of space forbids details of construction. Robt. L. Gonsalves was the contractor; N. A. Buckingham and Sons being the architects. Building and equipment cost up toward $100,000.

As is well known, this building burned March 14, 1918, and so another had to be erected.

Superintendents of City Schools

Prof. J. W. Hemminger was succeeded as superintendent of schools in 1902, by E. E. Webster. He in turn gave way to W. A. Furr in 1905, who resigned in 1913, being succeeded by W. A. Gore. Chas. E. Collins followed Mr. Gore in 1915-16.

Change of Law

The schools went under the General School law in 1916, and Prof. H. A. Perrin was chosen superintendent, and still fills the position.

At the election in 1916, Mrs. Belle W. Brockman, Thos. V. Hopper, Mary E. Pierson, Dr. Wm. P. Duncan, A. C. Metcalf, Geo. S. Rogerson, Thos. H. Rapp, Henry Muehlhausen and Dr. Carl E. Black were elected members of the board of education; with Julian P. Lippincott as president. Next year Mrs. Brockman gave place to Mrs. Maude G. Parker. These persons were the board at the time the high school burned, in 1918; and they "tentatively" approved the plan under which the coming building is now under construction. These same persons were members of the board, in January, 1920, when the contract was let for the building, the corner-stone of which is to be laid today. It is estimated to cost about $400,000. There was $81,600 of insurance on the building burned in March, 1918.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC RECEIVES SEASHORE RECORDS

Director Henry Ward Pearson, of the College of Music, has just received a set of the Seashore records for Measures of Musical Talent. Prof. Seashore, of the University of Iowa, has been experimenting for a number of years with musical tests, and these records and the text book, "The Psychology of Musical Talent" are his latest efforts. The material presented in the records furnishes measures for five of the most fundamental and essential capacities of the musical mind and are adapted primarily for use in the regular music course and for special surveys.

Musical talents vary enormously both in degree and kind. Many of these capacities can be measured with the beginning of musical education. It is of inestimable value for the art of music that these capacities and traits should be discovered early and be analyzed for the purpose of guidance in musical education.

JACKSONVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

By ENSLEY MOORE.

(This article prepared at the request of the Committee arranging for the laying of the High School Corner Stone.)

The Journal of July 9, 1900, had the following:

The building at the northwest corner of West State street and Payette street, which is now almost torn down to the ground, has been known of late years as the High School, but to the older citizens, many of whom received their first schooling—within its walls, the inscription on the front of the building

West Jacksonville

meant a great deal more than the latter name of the edifice.

Few now living can realize all that the opening of that school meant to Jacksonville, Ill., many states of this union, and even to the whole world. For out of that old building have gone men and women to all parts of the earth, better prepared to elevate mankind by reason of having been taught there in the rudiments or further studies of a liberal education.

It is doubtful whether there was another so adequate a school building or one of as much architectural pretension, in the state of Illinois, at the time our old high school was erected, for mind you the date was, "A. D. 1856," 60 years ago. Just after the Mexican war and over a decade before the Civil War; before the grand free school system of the state of Illinois was in full running order. There it was that Newton Bateman, graduate of Illinois College in the class of 1843, editor of the Illinois Teacher, principal of the Jacksonville Female Academy, superintendent of public instruction of Illinois from 1859 to 1875, except two years, professor in and president of the Alumni of Illinois College for many years, grand old man and true Christian, laid the foundation for his life work and fame, a fame known not only thru-out America, but recognized and honored by the scholars of the old world as well.

And it is understood that Dr. Bateman was influential in securing so creditable a structure for our little town, then containing about 3,500 inhabitants.

The district then contained all that part of Jacksonville lying west of Main street, and the limits of the school district lying north and south of West State street.

As stated in a recent Journal, by Mr. John R. Loar, the contractor for the building was Mr. William D. Humphrey, who died here a few years ago. Mr. Loar can always take pride and "tell it to the generation following," that he had a part in the construction of a building so well built, and that was the means of doing such a world of good to hundreds and thousands of the rising generations and those that they have influenced. For this was not only a school house for students, but a training school for teachers.

As first planned the top story of the house had a rounded roof and ends, to allow proper head-room for Masonic lodges and their ante-rooms. This was of shingles and there was a skylight in the main room, occupying the eastern part of the third story, and having only two windows at the east end for additional light and ventilation. In later years, when the room was used for school purposes, this skylight used to be very rudely shaken by the heavy winds of that day, and it sometimes seemed as if it would be torn off and the building wrecked, much to the misery of the unfortunate youth temporarily confined there during stormy hours.

Harmony Lodge, No. 3, contributed to the finishing of the top story, and that organization, and Jacksonville Lodge 120 as well as the Chapter met in the upper story until about 1856, probably finding the school house too far off for the convenience of most of the members.

The school is properly for the benefit of the scholars, and there is many an old man or woman who can recall incidents of lasting influence in their lives, to say nothing of the younger people who have not yet seen the old school house thru the perspective of years, who will realize that the sketch can furnish but a skeleton of the history which clustered about the building now reduced to unseemly rubbish.

Hon. Edward McConnell is authority for the statement that the building was not opened for school purposes until the fall session of 1851, the date on the front probably referring to the time when work was commenced in the erection of the house. He recalls this because of his having then begun school there, where he attended for four years, preparing for Illinois College.

Newton Bateman was the first principal and the male teachers were generally addressed as Mister, instead of as Professor, a manner to be preferred in this day. Mr. Bateman taught a general school, that is the studies were not only primary, but also preparatory to college or to female academies. He established his reputation as a great teacher, rather as principal, and attracted scholars not only from this but from other states. It is difficult to find where he was his first assistants, but he probably had four. Among these was his wife, formerly Miss Sarah Dayton, a delightful lady, who died in 1857. Among the earlier teachers were Mrs. Mary Amanda Divine, then known as Miss McCall, who died in January, 1855, her last home having been in Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Ellen Crosby; Miss Knapp, sister of the then famous Elder Knapp; Mr. Warren; James H. Blodgett now in the city of Washington; Miss Harriet Reed, now in California, a daughter of Dr. M. L. Reed; Miss Emilie Hughes, later Mrs. James Dayton, and dead for some years past; Miss Rogers and "Old Man Kennedy," as he was then known, a very eccentric teacher of the old school, who believed in the efficiency of the rod. Of the teachers who began service here as assistants of Mr. Bateman two deserve special mention, the first being Miss Elizabeth Chenery, of Montague, Mass. She was a lady of more than usual personal attractiveness, possessed of high ability as a teacher, imbued with the feeling that there are many and better things to be taught than mere book knowledge, one being by elegance of manner and by dainty neatness of dress and care of the hair, another by kindly precept and in arousing the ambition of the scholar, and a crowned by Christian grace, it would seem that she entered all too soon into heaven some 30 years ago. Another teacher, who had the boys room up stairs in the third story, was a tall, slim young man, who has since become known to a great many more of our people as Judge Edward P. Kirby. Judge Kirby was then as now of elegant personal appearance and the best and most appropriately dressed man the writer has seen in a common school room. He had the happy faculty of commanding the respect of his pupils maintaining remarkably good order without stiffness, arousing the pupils' ambition and bringing out his manliness, and could impart information exceptionally easily. He was like "Old Man Kennedy," capable of administering "strap oil" very efficiently it is said by those who had good opportunities of knowing.

In the fall of 1858 Mr. Bateman became principal of the Academy and in November of that year was elected state superintendent of instruction and Mr. Robert M. Tunnell, a graduate of Illinois College in 1852, was appointed principal of the West District school. He was an agreeable gentleman and a good teacher, but only continued in the work the two following school years. He is now and has been for some years a Congressional minister at Manhattan, Kansas.

His successor, who began work in the fall of 1860, was Mr. Kirby and he made a number of improvements even over Mr. Bateman—one being a more careful grading and systematizing of the work. Mr. Kirby was succeeded by another tall, slim young man in his department in the old Masonic hall and the name of this man was Edward A. Tanner. He could not keep away from a young lady out at Waverly, his native place, and after teaching a year he "went west to grow up with the country" in Oregon. From there he returned in 1865 to be a professor in Illinois College, from which he had been graduated in 1857, and to become president of his alma mater in 1882, so remaining until his lamented death in 1892. So the old school helped to prepare another college president. In this connection it is to be remarked that among those who have gone out from that building as pupils have been hundreds who have occupied, as ladies or gentlemen, the highest positions in life in the various communities which have been honored by their presence. A roll of the former pupils of the West District school and of the high school would be a roll of honor to Jacksonville, to Illinois and to the whole country. Among the teachers who taught under Mr. Kirby's management of the school were Miss Eliza J. Hughes now a well known lady of this city; Mrs. Kosciulowski and her daughter Sophie, the former long since dead; Mrs. Pierson; who afterwards became Mrs. C. Dunlap; Mrs. B. M. Rawlings Holmes, a beautiful lady, now of Emporia, Kansas; Miss Martha Fisher, now in California; Mrs. Wallace; Mrs. Morrison, from whom her daughter, Miss Mattie C. Morrison inherited her right to be interested in schools, and Miss Wetmore, an eastern lady of fine presence, elegant manner and an accomplished teacher.

Judge Kirby resigned in 1862 and that Fall his place was taken as principal and well filled by Mr. Michael Sanderson, a graduate of Illinois College in the Class of 1861. Michael Sanderson was one of "nature's noblemen" in personal appearance and character and his management of that school was all that could be desired. He was marked as a victim of that fell destroyer, consumption, and he was compelled to resign in 1865 and died, universally lamented, that fall. It cannot be recalled that there were any new teachers under Mr. Sanderson, except probably Mr. Thomas W. Catlin, son of Mr. Willis Catlin, of this place, and now a resident of Montana.

Mr. James L. Dyer succeeded Mr. Sanderson as principal, of whom all that can be learned is that he had a very large school, over 500 pupils being in attendance in 1867, the last year that the old district system applied to the management of the building, and the last three trustees were Hon. I. L. Morrison, M. P. Ayers and Judge E. P. Kirby.

An item of curiosity pertaining to the ground upon which the building stood is also of historical value. When the Wabash Railway had its beginning, in 1839, its track pursued a different course from the present one, and the track came up onto State street, across the present high school grounds, and thence continued down thru the square and on out East State street. The continued the railroad began at Mercedosa, came to Jacksonville and eventually extended its advantages to Springfield, Decatur, and other points beyond.

Another item of some interest is that previous to Mr. Kirby's charge of the school the bell was a small one, and was placed in the round hole in the face of the wall in the front gable of the building. After Judge Kirby became principal he procured a much larger bell, ever since in use, and had the cupola built.

The city government was instituted in April, 1867, and that year the board of education began its work. Under the new system the school never became a ward school until 1888. So far as can be established the ward principals of this building have been, in the order named, Mr. Henry Higgins—afterward county superintendent of schools—now removed to Winchester; Miss Mary A. Selby, since a teacher in the Illinois School for the Deaf, and a member of the board of education; Mrs. Padgett, now Mrs. Frank Hine, of Chicago; Miss Belle R. Kinman, daughter of Col. Kinman, who fell at Chancellorsville, and who undoubtedly shortened her life by her devotion to duty, and Miss Mary French, who is still principal of the Second Ward school, now located on West Lafayette avenue. Among the teachers who served in the ward service may be recalled, Miss Susan Ellis, remembered by many a staid citizen as the chaperone of Rose Cottage; Mrs. Mary Dunlap, Miss Hattie Long, Miss Jennie Wadell, Mrs. M. E. Walls, Miss Alice E. Holliday, Mrs. Nettie Rawlings Havenhill, Mrs. Padgett, Mrs. Ramsey, Miss Mary E. Smith, Miss Jennie King, and probably others not now recalled but equally deserving of note.

Under the board of education the following persons who served as city superintendents should perhaps be mentioned: Rev. Israel Wilkinson and Messrs. J. M. Alcott, D. H. Harris, H. M. Hamill, Miss Lyde Kent, Messrs. Ira W. Davenport, John Long, D. T. Harris and J. W. Henninger, the present incumbent.

The Second Ward school became the high school building in 1888, as stated above, and Miss S. Virginia Graves, a graduate of the Illinois College for Women, and a capable and strong teacher, became principal of the high school, a position she retained until the fall term of 1891, when Hugh S. Weston, of Peoria, was appointed as principal. Mr. Weston was graduated from Knox College under Dr. Newton Bateman, and was the second generation of workers from that distinguished educator's lineage has come into position of duty and responsibility in the good old West Jacksonville district school. It is but justice to Mr. Weston to say that he does honor alike to his Alma Mater and to his preceptor.

Since, being used as a high school the following persons are among those who have taught in the old building, if it is not a full list of all who have done so: Misses Helen L. Calky, Agnes S. Lusk, Sarah Hamilton, F. Minnie Alkire, Grace Ward, Ida Walker, Fannie Wakely and Mrs. Lizzie Koch. The gentlemen have been Messrs. T. D. Richardson, Harry L. Montgomery, Andrew M. Craig, William N. Filson, A. E. Day, J. W. Moffett, Fred W. Sanford, Harry P. Scott and Fred J. Fairbank.

This ends a record hard to rival.

ENSLEY MOORE.

The Journal of Sept. 23, 1900, had the following:

Historical Sketch

About the year 1865 it was decided by some of our leading citizens that Jacksonville needed a new school building and that the plans for conducting the school should be changed. Previous to that time the system of schools was under the district plan. As the city was growing rapidly it was decided to have a change to a school charter, going under a special charter and having four wards and a high school. The members of the board of education at this time, as far as I can ascertain, were I. L. Morrison, M. P. Ayers and E. P. Kirby. These gentlemen obtained plans and decided upon the present Fourth Ward building to be used as a ward building and a high school also.

Ground was broken in 1866 and the Washington school begun.

In 1867 and 1868 the high school held its first session, Mr. Wilkinson holding the position of principal and also the superintendency of the city schools. Mr. Wilkinson was ably assisted in the work by a strong force of teachers, among them Wm. Edgar Ernest Campbell, Edward A. Barber, Miss Harriet Reed, Miss Meritt, Miss Ober. After three years Mr. Wilkinson left and Mr. Olcott held the same position for one year, assisted by Mrs. Hannah Tolbey Volmer, Mrs. Emily Adams Richards and perhaps others. At the end of this year Mr. D. T. Harris was appointed superintendent of the schools and Mr. L. J. Block principal of the high school. It is greatly due to the ability of these gentlemen that our schools have become what they are. They came at a time when broadness and energy were required. They left their impress for good upon the public system of our city. Mr. Block was a wise educator, a friend to all. He thoroughly impressed his personality upon the members of our assembly. It was under his administration that the first class graduated in 1872. Three young ladies received the first diplomas issued by the board of education of the city and were the first who left the Washington high school. Mr. Block remained with us until 1882, when he left for wider fields of work, and has ever since been one of the leading educators of the mammoth city by the lake.

Mr. Harris remained one year more and left for the far west. Mr. Block was assisted at various times by the following broad and active teachers: Mrs. Emily Adams Richards, Miss Storrs, Miss Parson, Mrs. Julia Palmer Stevens, Miss Agnes Lusk, Miss Alice Rhoades, Miss Louise Diller, Mrs. Ellen Ramsey, Miss Rich, Miss Harris, Mr. Jenny, Mr. Volmer, Dr. Easter, Miss Sara G. Hamilton, one of the members of the present corps of teachers in our high school, was both a teacher and a pupil under Mr. Block. After an absence of a number of years he returned to complete a course of study in Michigan University.

He returned to her position in the high school, where as assistant to both Mr. Hamill and Miss Graves, broad minded and earnest, she has given power and value to the work of the school. Rev. H. M. Hamill succeeded Mr. Harris and Mr. Block in the capacity of both superintendent of schools and principal of the high school. His good work has lived after him and we feel proud of his record as an educator not only in our city but in the educational line generally. While Mr. Hamill was a true friend of genuine progress and in favor of many radical reforms in educational work, he was inclined to hold firmly to principles and practice which he deemed indispensable and which had been tested by actual experience. He believed in hard study and intelligent individual application on the part of the pupil as the only sure means of securing the highest attainable success in scholarship. He was always anxious to elevate the character and advance interests of the profession of teaching and to promote the cause of popular education in our midst. He was assisted by Mrs. Jane Morris and Miss Habermas.

Once more the scene changes. A lady is called to fill the position of principal, Miss Virginia Graves, whose unselfish devotion to the cause of education ever made her popular among her pupils. She was always anxious to have her pupils interested in their work and did much by her pleasant ways to advance them along the line of usefulness. She was assisted by Messrs. Arthur Stevens, Alfred Day, Fred W. Sanford, Filson, Craig, Moffett, Misses McElroy, Coon, Wakely, Mrs. Koch. During her principalship the public schools had as superintendent Miss Lyde Kent, Mr. L. W. Davenport, Mr. John R. Long, Mr. D. T. Harris, who did much toward the untiring interest to promote the good of the schools. Miss Graves was succeeded by the present incumbent, Mr. Hugh Weston, in whose hands the interests of the schools are safe. He is a genial, pleasant man, much thought of by his pupils, ready to do all in his power to aid the work of education.

Mr. J. W. Henniger became superintendent the same year. His experience has made him acquainted with the mind and his uniform kindness to child and teacher has secured for him sincere and lasting friendship in the schools. The teachers of the last few years are Miss Sara Hamilton, Mrs. Koch, Mr. Harry Montgomery, Mr. Harry Scott, Miss Helen Oakly, Miss Grace Ward, Mr. Fred Fairbank, Miss Osborne. The Alumni association was organized in 1875 and has just completed its first quarter of a century. We have over 400 active members and nearly 100 honorary members. Some have passed away, some have married, many have engaged in the profession of teaching, a number are physicians, a few ministers and lawyers, while a large per cent are business men and women. We have had as presidents, Mr. Will Phillips, Dr. Carl E. Black, Miss Sara Hamilton, Mr. Will Hall, Mr. Harry L. Montgomery, Martha Y. Morrison, Mr. K. I. Barr, Mr. Ed Kinman, Mr. Edward Fry. It has been our aim to be the "power behind the throne."

(Miss Morrison referred very complimentarily at some length to the services of Dr. David Prince and the Hon. Geo. W. Smith as long time members of the Board of Education.)

As far as we know the following gentlemen have served as members of the board of education, besides those already mentioned: I. D. Rawlings, Mr. E. Wolcott, Dr. Milligan, A. Gregory, John Marsh, Ensley Moore, John I. Chambers, Rev. E. Black, Hamill, Dr. Clappitt, Nathan R. Jerald, J. P. Lippincott, George J. Dodd, Edward Weil, Wm. P. Barr, Judge Whitlock, Mr. Rothwell, Dr. Wideman and Miss Mary Selby.

Among the ex-mayors were: Mr. J. O. King, Ed S. Greenleaf, Thomas Knoles, Joseph Tomlinson, John Hopper, Mr. Holly. This history may be faulty, for records were hard to find, but we have done the best we could under existing circumstances. We mentioned the first board of education under whom the existing system of schools was inaugurated, and we close with mentioning the last board: Mayor S. Allen Fairbank, T. B. Orear, T. H. Rapp, Abner Upham, Dr. Duncan, to whom we owe this occasion—"the laying of a corner stone in the new high school"—a much needed structure. The question of a new high school has been agitated for some years and various members have done their part towards getting it started, but thru the courtesy and energy of the present members we are indebted for the erection of the said structure.

Our thanks go to them for the favors shown us. They will aim to keep our schools second to none in our beautiful state. We as an association will do our part in abetting and aiding them on their many undertakings.

Martha Y. Morrison, President of the Jacksonville High School Alumni Association, Sept. 21, 1900.

The Journal of Sept. 25, 1900, contained an extended account of the laying of the corner-stone of the new High School on the block from State street to Court street, and Fayette to Kosciusko streets. Exercises were conducted by the Masonic Grand Lodge of the state. But lack of space now forbids further mention. Supt. J. W. Henninger presided.

The New Building was dedicated January 1, 1902, but again, lack of space forbids details of construction. Robt. L. Gonsalves was the contractor, N. A. Buckingham and Sons being the architects. Building and equipment cost up toward $100,000.

As is well known, this building burned March 14, 1918, and so another had to be erected. Superintendents of City Schools Prof. J. W. Henninger was succeeded as superintendent of schools in 1902, by E. E. Webster. He in turn gave way to W. A. Furr in 1905, who resigned in 1913, being succeeded by W. A. Gore. Chas. E. Collins followed Mr. Gore, in 1915-16.

Change of Law The schools went under the General School law in 1916, and Prof. H. A. Perrin was chosen superintendent, and still fills the position.

At the election in 1916, Mrs. Belle W. Brockman, Thos. V. Hopper, Mary E. Pierson, Dr. Wm. P. Duncan, A. C. Metcalf, Geo. S. Rogers, Thos. H. Rapp, Henry Muehlhausen and Dr. Carl E. Black were elected members of the board of education; with Julian P. Lippincott as president. Next year Mrs. Brockman gave place to Mrs. Maude G. Parker. These persons were the board at the time the high school burned, in 1918; and they "tentatively" approved the plan under which the coming building is now under construction. These same persons were members of the board, in January, 1920, when the contract was let for the building, the corner-stone of which is to be laid today. It is estimated to cost about $400,000. There was $81,600 of insurance on the building burned in March, 1918.

OPENING PRACTICE FOR FOOTBALL TODAY

Western Conference Will Start Practice Season—The Largest Squads in Years Reported by Big Ten Conference—John Deplor Will Captain Illinois.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Football will come into its own in the Western Conference today with the opening of the practice season for the fall gridiron campaign.

Reports from the universities in the "Big Ten" indicated that the largest squads in years responded to the call and that the season bids fair to eclipse the one of 1919, the most successful in years. The teams with the possible exception of Northwestern and Purdue, will be made up of veteran players of known ability.

The practice for the remainder of the week will consist chiefly of limbering up work. The more strenuous work will be started next week when the players will be sent down under punts and the first scrimmages will be held.

Illinois, winner of the 1919 championship, will start the season well fortified with vets. John Deplor, all-western center, will captain the eleven. Ohio state runner-up in the championship race will build its 1920 machine around "Pete" Stinchcomb, who was regarded as one of the best quarterbacks in the west last season.

The Minnesota prospects appear the best in years and a heavy fast line and a speedy back field seems assured. Iowa will have the Devine brothers as its principal asset, while Wisconsin will rely upon Captain Weston, and end of great ability.

With the eligibility of Frank Steketee, all-American fullback in 1918, assured, and other veterans in the line-up, Michigan promises to be in the field with a promising team.

Coach Stagg of the University of Chicago has back field material of ability from which to make his selections. The team will be captained by "Red" Jackson, one of the best forwards ever developed at Chicago.

The general opening of the season is slated for October 2.

OPENING PRACTICE FOR FOOTBALL TODAY

Western Conference Will Start Practice Season—The Largest Squads in Years Reported by Big Ten Conference—John Deplor Will Captain Illinois.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Football will come into its own in the Western Conference today with the opening of the practice season for the fall gridiron campaign.

Reports from the universities in the "Big Ten" indicated that the largest squads in years responded to the call and that the season bids fair to eclipse the one of 1919, the most successful in years. The teams with the possible exception of Northwestern and Purdue, will be made up of veteran players of known ability.

The practice for the remainder of the week will consist chiefly of limbering up work. The more strenuous work will be started next week when the players will be sent down under punts and the first scrimmages will be held.

Illinois, winner of the 1919 championship, will start the season well fortified with vets. John Deplor, all-western center, will captain the eleven. Ohio state runner-up in the championship race will build its 1920 machine around "Pete" Stinecomb, who was regarded as one of the best quarterbacks in the west last season.

The Minnesota prospects appear the best in years and a heavy fast line and a speedy back field seems assured. Iowa will have the Devine brothers as its principal asset, while Wisconsin will rely upon Captain Weston, and end of great ability.

With the eligibility of Frank Steketee, all-American fullback in 1918, assured, and other veterans in the line-up, Michigan promises to be in the field with a promising team.

Coach Stagg of the University of Chicago has back field material of ability from which to make his selections. The team will be captained by "Red" Jackson, one of the best forwards ever developed at Chicago.

The general opening of the season is slated for October 2.

WOODSON BAND GIVES FIRST ANNUAL PICNIC

Was Held at Woodson Christian Church—Affair Proved Most Successful.

Woodson, Sept. 15.—The Woodson band held its first annual picnic and burgoon in Woodson Christian church today. The affair proved a most successful one, nearly three hundred gallons of soup being sold as well as a large quantity of ice cream and sandwiches.

The band was organized in January 1920, under the leadership of W. T. Craig. The aggregation has made rapid progress and has been a source of much enjoyment and has also played a number of engagements in this and adjacent counties.

Since the organization of the band the entire community has shown a great interest in its welfare. Especially has this been true of the ladies of the Christian and Presbyterian churches. The members wish to express their appreciation of the Christian and Presbyterian churches and assure the citizens of Woodson that they will always try to prove worthy of their support.

Burlington Brakeman Suffers Injuries When Grain Car Overturns Near Blackburn Elevator—Was Taken to Home in Alexander.

Roy Ewen, a brakeman for the Burlington railroad, was painfully bruised Wednesday afternoon when a freight car containing wheat overturned near the Blackburn elevator.

The car had been filled with grain at the elevator and was being taken out on the main track for shipment. The car left the rails at the frog joining the switch with the main tracks and overturned.

Ewen was rushed to Passavant hospital where an X-Ray was made to ascertain the extent of his injuries. It was found that they were not serious and he was taken to his home in Alexander Wednesday evening.

EAST STATE STREET WILL BE PAVED

Bid Received Wednesday Is Within the Estimate — Contract Awarded to Roy Williams.

The board of local improvements, with the sanction of East State street property owners, yesterday let the contract for East State street pavement to Roy Williams for the sum of $34,954. Bids for the paving were opened at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning. There were three bidders: Roy Williams, $34,954; J. T. Walbridge, $34,600; Simon Fernandez, $37,741.50. The Walbridge bid had a provision below the signature that the bid was conditional upon one-half of the amount of the contract being paid in cash.

In view of the board, after obtaining legal advice, the Walbridge bid could not be considered and the contract was awarded to Mr. Williams. Before this formal action was taken by the board a motion was made by W. S. Ehnie, with a second by P. Bonansinga that the work be awarded to Mr. Williams.

Under the provisions of the law ten days must elapse before the contract becomes absolutely effective, as the property owners have the right to any time within the ten days take over the contract themselves and do the work.

Mr. Williams has been engaged in contracting work in an extensive way for a period of years. He is just completing a contract at Lovington, Ill. He has done 12 miles of paving work at Normal and has completed a number of contracts in Indiana.

Mr. Williams stated yesterday that orders will be placed at once for all the necessary materials and work will be done with the expectation of having it finished by Dec. 1.

They are Mrs. Frank Green and Mrs. William Richardson, with Mrs. Edward Hairgrove and Mrs. John Moore as alternates.

Roll call was responded to by "Some facts pertaining to the earth." An interesting paper on "How Science Knows There is Life on Other Worlds" was prepared by Mrs. N. T. Fox and read by Mrs. John Moore. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the program. The next meeting of the club will be on Sept. 29, when Mrs. Albert Hopper will be the hostess.

THE TRAGEDY OF DESCHANEL IS NOW
PUBLIC PROPERTY

President of French Republic Will Resign Office

FIGHTING ILLNESS FOR FOUR MONTHS

PARIS, Sept. 15.—"The tragedy of Deschanel," which for nearly four months has been the secret of a few personal friends, now has become public property and nothing but the warmest sympathy is being expressed on all sides for the president of the republic as it is announced that he has decided irrevocably to resign.

President Deschanel's four months' fight against illness has been a courageous one, but since his accident at Montargis, May 23, when he fell from a moving train, it has been a losing one, and the hope for his early recovery has been abandoned.

Before another week has passed it may safely be said, M. Deschanel will be retired to private life.

There is no immediate danger of President Deschanel dying, it is said, but it is certain that there is no possibility of his resuming the duties of his post of chief executive. Charles C. Jonnart, extraordinary ambassador to the Vatican, who is looking as formidable candidate for succession to the presidency is now resting at his country home near Dunkerque.

EAST STATE STREET WILL BE PAVED

Bid Received Wednesday is With in the Estimate Contract Awarded to Roy Williams.

The board of local improvements, with the sanction of East State street property owners, yesterday let the contract for East State street pavement to Roy Williams for the sum of $34,954. Bids for the paving were opened at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning.

There were three bidders: Roy Williams, $34,954; J. T. Walbridge, $34,600; Simeon Fernandes, $37,741.50. The Walbridge bid had a provision below the signature that the bid was conditional upon one-half of the amount of the contract being paid in cash.

In view of the board, after obtaining legal advice, the Walbridge bid could not be considered and the contract was awarded to Mr. Williams. Before this formal action was taken by the board a motion was made by W. S. Ehnie, with a second by P. Bonansinga that the work be awarded to Mr. Williams.

Under the provisions of the law ten days must elapse before the contract becomes absolutely effective, as the property owners have the right to any time within the ten days take over the contract themselves and do the work.

Mr. Williams has been engaged in contracting work in an extensive way for a period of years. He is just completing a contract at Lovington, Ill. He has done 12 miles of paving work at Normal and has completed a number of contracts in Indiana.

Mr. Williams stated yesterday that orders will be placed at once for all the necessary materials and work will be done with the expectation of having it finished by Dec. 1.

THE TRAGEDY OF DESCHANEL IS NOW PUBLIC PROPERTY

FIGHTING ILLNESS FOR FOUR MONTHS

PARIS, Sept. 15.—"The tragedy of Deschanel," which for nearly four months has been the secret of a few personal friends, now has become public property and nothing but the warmest sympathy is being expressed on all sides for the president of the republic as it is announced that he has decided irrevocably to resign.

President Deschanel's four months' fight against illness has been a courageous one, but since his accident at Montargis, May 23, when he fell from a moving train, it has been a losing one, and the hope for his early recovery has been abandoned.

Before another week has passed it may safely be said, M. Deschanel will be retired to private life.

There is no immediate danger of President Deschanel dying, it is said, but it is certain that there is no possibility of his resuming the duties of his post of chief executive. Charles C. Jonnart, extraordinary ambassador to the vatican, who is looming as formidable candidate for succession to the presidency is now resting at his country home near Dunkerque.
